Narrator: Rick Perry is new to the national spotlight. [on screen: Curtain opens on silhouette of Texas Governor Rick Perry.] Gov. Perry: Howdy! Narrator: And the more we see. The less we like.
In Texas, Perry led an attack on women's health that's leaving hundreds of thousands of women and families without basic care. [on screen: "Perry Agenda: Extreme cuts to basic women's health care."]	Lawmakers slashed family planning funding by two-thirds. The Department of State Health Services expects about 180,000 Texas women will lose access to birth control and cancer screenings. http://www.texastribune.org/texas-legislature/82nd-legislative-session/day-15/
But Rick Perry's not acting alone. Perry's newest supporting actor is Bob McDonnell. [on screen: silhouette of Virginia Governor Bob McDonnell.]
They're together today. [on screen: RGA fundraising event details.]	Republican Party of Virginia "Lunch with Rick Perry" Invite http://rpv.org/node/832
And together, this pair has an agenda of pushing the most restrictive women's health care laws in the nation. [on screen: "McDonnell Agenda: Pushing one of the most restrictive abortion laws in the nation."]	These actions are separate from and go far beyond the normal regulation of health clinics — licensing of physical plant and providers, standards for cleanliness, operational standards for equipment used — under which abortion clinics and other clinics performing procedures with similarly low levels of risk must already comply. http://www.rhrealitycheck.org/blog/2011/08/25/governor-mcdonnell-uses-emergency-process-entrap-abortion-providers-1
Help the Planned Parenthood Action Fund drop the curtain on these anti-women's health politicians. [on screen: Join us at www.PPAction.org/dropthecurtain to drop the curtain on the Perry-McDonnell agenda. PAID FOR BY THE PLANNED PARENTHOOD ACTION FUND]
