- You can't legislate health family communication. The idea that government can force healthy family interactions ignores reality for many youth and creates lasting injury and trauma. It's time to #RepealPNA: bit.ly/repeal-pna
- It's time to trust young people to make their own decisions. It's time to repeal the Parental Notice of Abortion Act in #Illinois. Learn more at bit.ly/repeal-pna. #RepealPNA
- The judicial bypass alternative to parental notice forces youth to stand before a judge and ask for permission to get needed #healthcare. This process is traumatizing and unnecessary. It's time to #RepealPNA. Learn more: bit.ly/repeal-pna
- Since PNA went into effect, >99.5% of judicial bypass requests statewide have been granted—because judges know that youth can be trusted to make decisions about their #healthcare, w/support from their providers. It's time to #RepealPNA. Learn more: bit.ly/repeal-pna
- Don't just take it from me: every leading medical organization opposes parental notice laws, including @AmerMedicalAssn @AmerAcadPeds @ACOG @PublicHealth & @SAHMTtweets. Because they know these laws hurt young people. It's time to #RepealPNA. Learn more: bit.ly/repeal-pna [note: these are Twitter handles. If you post to Instagram or Facebook, you'll need to adjust these.]
- PNA laws don't make sense. IL allows pregnant youth to make many medical decisions – even those far riskier than a safe, legal abortion – w/o involving a parent or going to court. Only if she decides to end a pregnancy does the government force her to tell her family. #RepealPNA
- In IL, a pregnant minor does NOT to need to involve a parent to
  - ✓choose to continue a pregnancy and give birth
  - ✓consent to high-risk care like c-section
  - ✓place a child for adoption

Only if she decides to end a pregnancy does the gov't force her to tell her family #RepealPNA
